Continuation of the Act of Election of the Queen of Sweden.

WE hereby return our most submissive Thanks to her Majesty, for having been pleased to express a true Dislike and just Aversion to the Sovereignty, as it is called, or an uncontrollable Royal Power, the Effects of which we have found and experienced in many ways to have ruined, diminished, and very much weakened the Kingdom, to the universal and irretrievable Ruin, Damage, and Loss of us all; We therefore the Senators and States of the Kingdom, sensible of so woful and utterly ruinous an Experience, with unanimous Consent and earnest Resolution, will, that so dangerous a Power shall for the future entirely be abolished, reversed, and annulled; and declare hereby, that whoever by indirect and secret Practices, or open Force, shall endeavour to make himself absolute, shall forfeit the Crown, and be considered as an Enemy of the Kingdom: And that whoever of us shall in any manner consent, or suffer himself to be made instrumental for introducing again such an absolute Government, shall be treated without Mercy, and punished as a Traitor to his Country; nor shall any body, either Clergyman or Layman, exercise a publick Employment great or small, or discharge any Trust within the Kingdom of Sweden, unless he has taken a corporeal Oath for abjuring the Sovereignty or Arbitrary Government, so ruinous and contrary to the Welfare of the Nation, according to this set Form. I --- promise and swear to God and his Gospel, that I will not endeavour either secretly or openly, my self or through others, by advising or acting in any Manner whatsoever, to introduce, revive, or promote, uncontrollable Royal Power, or as it is called Sovereignty; on the contrary, I will keep it out, and oppose it to the utmost of my Power and Ability, and discover and denounce without Delay, all that comes to my Knowledge, of Enactments or Proposals made by others for introducing that dangerous Power into the Kingdom. So help me God.

Her Majesty and the Heirs that are to spring from her Body, (which God graciously grant) be pleased on their Part to govern the Kingdom according to the common Law of the Land, and the Form of Government which is now made and established by us the Senators and States of the Kingdom; to preserve to us our Christian Evangelick Religion; to support Justice, and obstruct Injustice; and to let every one enjoy his own Property and Rights; pursuant to the most gracious Declaration her Majesty has made to us in Writing.

We the States of the Kingdom assembled here, also return with profound Respect our most submissive Thanks to her Majesty, for having been pleased upon the unfortunate Death of the late King her Brother, of pious Memory, to concur with the Senators of the Kingdom then present, and make Provision in such Concerns of the Kingdom, as admitted of no Delay, and required the greatest Attention and Resolution, left by so unexpected a Change the publick Tranquillity might have been endangered and disturbed by ill-designing Men. We declare therefore to be valid and of Force all that her Majesty has been pleased to establish, command, and ordain for the publick Good on that Occasion, namely, The Placart of the 11th of December last, for calling in the Mint-Tokens and Money-Bills. The Letter of the same Date to all the Governors and Lands Hensdings or Lieutenants of the Provinces, relating to the Means of recruiting the Garrisons. The Letter of the 15th of December, to the Chambers of Finances and Deputation, ordaining that those who have Mortgages under their Care, shall stand to their Contracts. The Letter of the 18th of December, to the Governors and Lieutenants of the Provinces, relating to the Posts, that the same be furnished till further Orders, by the Keepers of Post-Horses and Innkeepers. The Letter of the 19th of December, concerning the importing and storing of Corn. The Letter of the 8th of January 1719, to all the Governors and Lieutenants of the Provinces about restoring to the Communities and others their Brandy Stills. And the Letter of the 12th of January to the Chamber of Finances, ordering that the Disposition about quartering the Troops in the Country shall not be altered.

God Almighty, who establishes, strengthens, prosers and supports all Governments and Governs, grant all this may be done to the Glory of his holy Name, the Advancement of his Church, to the Good of our most gracious Queen and the immortalizing of her Name, as also to the restoring Welfare and a joyful Peace to the Nation.

Whereas we for us and on the Part of our Fellow Subjects left at home, have unanimously found good, consented and agreed to all this singly, and on the whole, and shall and are willing steadfastly to observe it as true and faithful Subjects; therefore we the abovesaid Senators and States of the Kingdom of Sweden, have signed it with our own Hands, and put our Seals to it. Done at Stockholm the 21st of February, in the Year of our Lord, 1709.

Signed and Sealed by the Senators, Counts, Barons, and the whole Nobility and Gentry, the Archbishop, the Bishops, and the whole Clergy of the Kingdom, the Burgmasters, Common Councils, and Deputies of all the Towns, and the Deputies of all the Communities.

London, April 22.

Letters from Scotland advise, that the late Lord Seaforth, Earl Marischal, Marquis of Tullibardin, and some other Rebels, have landed with some Men in the County of Ross in the North: They are supposed to have come from Port-Passage. Upon this Advice, we are inform'd, it has been resolved to send to Scotland the 3 Dutch Battallions which a few Days ago imbarke'd at Williamstade and have landed near Newcastle, and also the two Swiss Regiments which came into the Thames and have been quartered in Essex. This may the more easily and safely be done, because this Morning Letters arrived from Paris, which relate, that by Advices from Madrid it appears at length that the Spanish Fleet has been dispersed, and that some have put into Cadiz, others into the Ports of Portugal, and others into those of Biscay and Galicia, all in a very shattered Condition. By the same Letters we have also an important Piece of News, namely, that a Detachment from the Duke of Berwick's Army, consisting of 12 Battallions and 400 Horse, commanded by the Marquis de Silly, have taken Port Passage, and burnt 6 large Men of War which they found there on the Stocks almost finished; after which the French sent from thence to Bayone, a vast Quantity of Materials of all sorts for building and rigging of Ships, with a considerable Number of Cannon. It is remarkable, that not one Man of the said Detachment deserted, or committed the least Disorder; and that the French having dispersed Manifestoes, setting forth, that they were not come as Enemies, nor to make Conquests, but to maintain the Privileges of the People of Spain, the Inhabitants of that Part of the Country appeared well satisfied, and kept quiet in their Houses. The like Success may be expected when the French Army shall pass into Catalonia, the Spaniards being very weak on that Side: Which cannot fail of entirely confounding that Part of the Scheme of Cardinal Alberoni, which was founded on his Notion, that the French Troops would not do their Duty.
